FORTY KILLED IN TRAIN COLLISION; 50 ARE INJURED

Passengers on Way Home to Spend Fourth of July Are Mangled in Fearful Wreck on Lackawanna Railroad

Fifty Injured, Many Fatally, When Death Engine Crashes Into the Rear of Standing Train; Screams of Dying Issue From Splintered Ruins

BABIES AND CHILDREN AMONG VICTIMS

CORNING, N. Y., July 4.—At least forty passengers were killed and fifty injured today when an express train crashed into the westbound Lackawanna passenger train No. 9, two miles east of this city. The wrecked train which runs from New York to Buffalo was standing on the track a few minutes when the express train, which carries no passengers, struck it in the rear at full speed. The two day coaches attached to the rear of No. 9 were hurled down an embankment and the express plunged half way through the rear Pullman of the standing train before it came to a stop.

The death list probably will run over forty. Thirty-four bodies had been taken from the debris three hours after the wreck. Many of the injured were mortally hurt. Among the sufferers were several babies and children.

Most of the killed were passengers in the day coaches who were going home to spend the Fourth. F. W. Drake of Passaic, New Jersey, the Pullman conductor, said four passengers were killed in the Pullman. A score of physicians soon were on the scene and the injured were brought to the Corning hospital.

PINNED UNDER WRECKAGE

A number of the injured are still pinned under the wreckage and their groans and shrieks can be heard. The bodies of the dead were laid on the top of the embankment along the track and at the roadside were covered with blankets from the Pullman. Every undertaker in Corning was called to help care for the dead, but their wagons were first pressed into service to carry the injured to the hospital. Many of the injured were taken away in automobiles.

As yet the cause of the wreck has not been determined. The place where it occurred was a straight stretch of track. So far as can be ascertained the engineer of the express train had no warning that the passenger train was in his way. It is believed that when he first saw it he thought the train was standing on a parallel track.

AUTOS DASH TO SCENE

As soon as the news of the accident spread, hundreds of automobiles dashed to the scene, blocked the roadway and interfered with the removal of the dead and injured. A detail of police was sent to keep the roads open and to keep the crowds back from the wreckage.

A special relief train from Elmira brought physicians and nurses. Coroner Herbert B. Smith ordered all the bodies brought here and planned

RIVERS FIRST TO ENTER THE ARENA Wolgast and Contender Both Tip Scales at 133 Pounds

VERNON, July 4.—In the first preliminary Tom Maloney was given the decision over Bob Graham of Los Angeles at the end of ten rounds. The second preliminary was for ten rounds between Pete McVey, one of Wolgast's sparring partners and Dan Cullen, of Los Angeles at 133 pounds. Rivers arrived at the arena at 2:15. Wolgast came in shortly afterward. Both men were put on the scales at 2:50 and failed to tip the beam at 133.

LOS ANGELES, July 4.—Garbed in the old clothes which have borne the brunt of his training siege in mountains and valleys, Ad Wolgast, champion of the world's lightweight pugilist division, spent the morning hours today at ease in his training camp within sight of the big Vernon arena where nearly 12,000 men struggled for the privilege of seeing him defend his title this afternoon against Joe Rivers, the young Los Angeles Mexican.

Rivers, a faint pink showing under his swarthy complexion, and his eyes aglow with anticipation, remained at his quarters at Venice until an hour before the going was scheduled to sound, shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon. If he won, he said, he would be the first of the Latin race to achieve championship status in pugilism, and he fully appreciated the distinction.

The formality of weighing was held off until the little fighting men arrived at the arena, after the last preliminary. Each one came in a big automobile crowded with seconds, pull holders, towel swingers, advisers, officials and volunteer, and other accessories.

WOUND HAS HEALED

Wolgast was examined this morning by several physicians and surgeons all of whom stated that the wound made in his groin when he was bereft of his appendix last September, would cause no trouble today. The champion, however, said he expected Rivers to play for this supposedly weak spot and both he and Tom Jones, his manager, told Referee Jack Welsh of San Francisco to watch the Mexican closely and see that he did not hit foul in his anxiety to reach the "tender spot" left by the appendicitis operation.

"This is the first fight of any consequence I have had since I went to the hospital the night before my scheduled battle with Freddie Welsh last year," said Wolgast. "This Mexican would not have dared to fight me if it was not for the fact that he believed the operation weakened me. But I want to say now that this fight will go down as one of the best of the ring a hustled phenom."

ODDS AT 10 TO 6

Many evidently held the same belief as the odds shortly before ring time were still quoted at 10 to 6. Today's battle is the first Rivers has fought in the lightweight division. Only a few months ago he killed twice with the spidery Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight title holder at less than 122 pounds. But today his shoulders are as broad as a teamster's, his arms comparable to a blacksmith's, and he weighed only a few ounces less than the lightweight limit, a short time after breakfast.

The championship battle in prospect brought out of Los Angeles an army of men. Eight thousand $3 seats—the bargain counter division of the arena—were thrown on sale at 10:30 o'clock and if Wolgast had been so minded he could have seen himself and Rivers multiplied a thousand fold in the struggling throng, milling and fighting to get up to the ticket sellers.

CROWDS GATHER EARLY

Long before the hour of 10, the throngs of Fourth of July excitement seekers began to gather before the arena, and they made a charge on the ticket booths as soon as Promoter Tom McCarey's men made their appearance. All of Vernon's police force were required to hold them in check. It was estimated that McCarey had gathered in more than $50,000 before the first preliminary boys entered the ring at 1:30 o'clock.

Sportsmen of prominence from all over the west and several from the east are here to attend the big battle of the little fighting men. Hundreds poured in from the north, 500 fans arriving from San Francisco yesterday in one boatload, none of whom was able to get a choice seat because the reserved section had been sold out several days ago. Mingling with those who were willing to chance it on the sale of general admissions this morning the visitors went to the arena and stood in line with the hundreds of local enthusiasts who did not feel that they were able to pay more than $3 for a seat.

ARENA CROWDED

Three hours before the big battle, and two hours before the first preliminary boys appeared, the great octagonal arena was almost filled and from numerous entrances the throngs still poured in. The day was cloudless, and the new ring, just painted a brilliant red, reflected the sun with an almost blinding glare.

Joe Rivers spent the morning with his parents, and his father, only recently a resident of the Arizona-Mexican border, where Joe was born, accompanied him to the arena in Joe's big red automobile.

FIGHTERS AT REQUIRED WEIGHT

Berg and Petroskey Attract Big Crowd at Wheelmen's Pavilion

Scores of Sailors Come to Oakland to Witess Battle

Otto Berg of Astoria and "Sailor Ed" Petroskey of the United States navy, who are to box ten rounds at the Wheelmen's pavilion, this afternoon, when called on to weigh in for the contest at 10 o'clock this morning, were within the required weight, 160 pounds.

Both men showed the effects of their strenuous training, and each looked fit for a grueling mix-up. In the betting the Sailor ruled favorite over the Oregonian at the odds of 10 to 7.

From the number of advance calls for tickets and those already sold an overflow house is looked for by the promoters.

Several hundred sailors who are enjoying shore leave invaded Oakland for the fight shortly after noon with a band of twenty pieces and enlivened the occasion.

Escapes Spanking at Hands of Roosevelt

Urchin Hits Colonel's Wife With Stone; Hides From T. R.'s Wrath

OYSTER BAY, July 4.—Somewhere in the little village of Woodside, just west of this town, there is a boy who narrowly missed going down to history as having been spanked by ex-President Roosevelt. The boy was playing by the roadside yesterday when the Colonel's automobile came along. Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt were passengers. The urchin threw a stone at the machine as it whizzed by and hit Mrs. Roosevelt in the face. Although she was not injured, the Colonel stopped his machine and started in pursuit of the lad, who had concealed himself in the midst of a small army of bare-footed, dirty-faced boys. Colonel Roosevelt was unable to identify the guilty one, however, and the culprit went to bed unspanked.

Richard C. Kerens Reported to Have Received $500,000 for Interests.

ST. LOUIS, July 4.—Richard C. Kerens, ambassador to Austria-Hungary, has sold his holdings in the German-American Press Association, which publishes the St. Louis Times to Edward L. Proctorius and others, according to Proctorius, who said Kerens' stock was valued approximately $500,000.

Diplomatic duties kept Kerens from St. Louis so that he could not conveniently look after his interests, it was stated.

FLYNN PROVES TOY IN HANDS OF HIS BIG OPPONENT

Coloradan's Butting Tactics Rouse Hoots and Jeers of Spectators

RINGSIDE, Las Vegas, N. M., July 4.—Jim Flynn's white hopes expired today in the ninth round of his scheduled forty-five-round bout with Champion Jack Johnson. Flynn's face was chopped and cut frightfully by the champion's deliberate blows, and in the ninth round Chief Cowles of the New Mexican state police pushed his way into the ring and declared the contest ended as a brutal and impossible exhibition. For three rounds Flynn had realized his inability to defend himself and frantically tried to butt his way to victory. At times he leaped a foot from the ground, endeavoring to crash his skull against the champion's jaw. Time after time Referee Smith warned him to stop it and Flynn made no defense.

"He's holding me; he's holding me," he would declare to Smith and in the next clinch he would try it again. When the police interfered Referee Smith, through the announcer, awarded Johnson the fight.

Johnson made no serious effort to hurt Flynn at any time during the nine rounds, apparently holding himself in check, even when Flynn's butting tactics were at the worst. Johnson bore not a single mark of the fight beyond a slight cut inside his lower lip.

EAST LAS VEGAS, July 4.—Champion Jack Johnson entered the ring at 2:27 and was followed shortly afterward by Flynn. Both were cheered by the well filled arena. Flynn entered the ring at 2:37 amid tremendous applause. Johnson received very little of it. Referee Eddie Smith ordered the ring cleared. Abe Pollack of Denver and Cochran of Kansas City were presented as alternate referees.

At Johnson's request Mrs. Johnson was transferred to another box in order to be nearer the champion's corner.

Flynn appeared to be in exceedingly good humor and spent much of the time sauntering about the ring, greeting friends. Flynn, espousing Mrs. Johnson's cause, shouted: "Ain't you pulling for me, Mrs. Johnson?"

The champion's wife said nothing. The principals then donned the gloves.

WITHDRAWS OBJECTIONS. Johnson withdrew his objection to the gloves provided by the ring officials, having previously ordered a special set for his own use.

Flynn was then introduced to the crowd as the "fighting fireman of a union." Johnson's reception was duplicated. Johnson was then presented as the champion heavyweight of the world. His reception was lukewarm.

The ring was cleared at 2:45 with Announcer Cannon making his final remarks, referring to the rules governing the contest. After the men had discussed rules time was called at 2:49.

FIRST ROUND. "Will you shake hands, Johnson?" queried Flynn as he opened the battle by rushing into a clinch. "No," replied the black Flynn kept in close but Johnson easily avoided his attempts and lunged a stiff left to the ear. The champion pushed his man across the ring and hooked the left to the ear and a moment later flung a hard short arm jolt to the jaw. Johnson smiled constantly and fought with great care. Flynn backed the negro against the ropes and the champion rewarded him with a right that cut a deep gash under his left eye. Round all Johnson's.

SECOND ROUND.

As Flynn rushed, Johnson simply gripped him about the shoulders and held him at bay. All the while grin came on his face. The champion peeked at the fireman's face with light lefts and as the clinch upper cut took Flynn with rights to the jaw. The champion faced with Flynn twice more shooting right upper cuts to the jaw, one of which sent the champion's head back. The champion

PRETTY NURSE IS FOUND IRRATIONAL BUGGY RIDES UNEARTHED BY POLICE

MISS NELLIE LESSLEY, WHOSE ABSENCE FROM HOME WAS A THREE-DAY MYSTERY TO HER PARENTS.

While Family Worried, Girl Was Companion of Male Friend on Pleasure Jaunts

The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Miss Nellie Lessley, a nurse, from the family home at 1424 Thirty-fourth avenue Sunday evening was dissipated when she was returned in an automobile last night by Dr. J. H. Callen, a friend of the family, who found the young woman wandering near the Southern Pacific station at Melrose. Miss Lessley appeared to be irrational and said she could not remember where she had been. The Melrose police ascertained that she was missing from home riding about with C. H. Jacobson, proprietor of the White Horse Saloon, 2341 East Fourteenth street, and Tuesday evening had visited Jacobson's place in company with the proprietor and Frank Bowers, proprietor of a lively saloon at Forty-seventh avenue. She drove into the lively saloon yesterday afternoon and was later seen by the physician.

Dr. Callen said this morning that when he met Miss Lessley last night he noticed that she was irrational and asked her to get into his automobile, intending to take her home. The girl obeyed but said: "I want to go to the canal. I've had enough of this life." The physician took her home, where her father and other members of her family were distracted at her absence. It is believed that Miss Lessley will be well again in a day or two.

FLYNN IS TOY IN THE HANDS OF JOHNSON Coloradan Attempts to Bull Way to Victory; Police Stop Fight

Johnson dazzled the dremen with his speed, landing left and right to the jaw. Again Flynn was warned for butting. This time the champion objected strongly. "He's holding me," was Flynn's excuse. Johnson made a lunge and a volley of straight punches to the face, bewildering Flynn. Then he stopped himself, apparently with a view to prolonging the contest. Flynn's seconds also warned him to cease butting, when he sat down.

SEVENTH ROUND.

Johnson played with the Puelbian as a kitten would with a mouse. He landed fully a half dozen rapid fire punches to the face and at the same time placed himself in a position to withstand Flynn's butting tactics. "Wait a minute," cried the champion to a spectator who had shouted for him to end it. Flynn bled profusely from the nose as Johnson beat a tattoo with left and rights to that organ. Flynn failed to land a glove on the champion's nose, and Johnson proved impossible. Johnson made the blood fairly gush as he rained blow after blow on his bewildered opponent. There was not a drop of perspiration on the champion as he took his seat.

EIGHTH ROUND.

Flynn again tried to butt, and was twice warned. This round was much like its predecessors, with Johnson appearing to be in the lead. Flynn was again warned for butting. Johnson was given a technical chair, while the crowd vented its wrath on Flynn with jeers and boos.

NINTH ROUND.

Flynn finally got in close, jumped a foot in the air and landed with the top of his head against the negro's jaw. Captain Smith of the referee, realizing that the referee seemed lost to the contest on a foul, hurried into the ring and brought the battle to an end. Referee Smith thereupon gave the decision to Johnson. Johnson was given a technical chair, while the crowd vented its wrath on Flynn with jeers and boos.

EAST LAS VEGAS, N. M., July 4.—The streets of Las Vegas presented an animated scene today, many hours before the time set for the first world's heavyweight championship since Jack Johnson defended that title against James J. Jeffries at Reno over two years ago today. This time it was Jim Flynn of Pueblo who assailed the negro's claim to pugilistic supremacy, and he was backed by a big following of Colorado sport lovers, who thronged into town all last night and today.

Two years ago Johnson was a short-ender in the betting; Jeffries then unbeaten but retired, being a 10 to 7 favorite. Today it was the other way around. Johnson's odds were offered at 2 to 1 on himself found no takers. The odds took a turn shortly before noon, after the champion paid an unexpected visit to the commissioner's office. Johnson's offer of $10,000 to $5000, Johnson wins, was made to read $10,000 to $4000 and it was Johnson contemplated a further reduction to 10 to 3.

Despite the one-sided look of the betting, the commission's board then appeared to be a wide interest in the fight. A great many fight followers had gathered in this city to witness the match and Las Vegas looked in a small way today, much as Reno did two years ago today. The click of roulette wheels, the droning voices of the game dealer were missing, but the same restless, foot-weary crowd surged back and forth all morning along the narrow sidewalk. The crowd here and there and the cries of newboys and hucksters lent an air of excitement and anticipation, but the feeling of uncertainty and eager interest in the outcome which marked the Fourth of July morning at Reno was absent. There were no heated debates on the street corners. Everybody seemed willing to talk over the probabilities in a dispassionate and purely philosophical way.

BULL HOLDS UP STREET; BREAKS WOMAN'S ARM

VALDOSTA, Ga., July 4.—An mad bull created a sensation on Ann street in this city by taking possession of the street and refusing to allow anybody to go that way. Mrs. Black, who resides on that street started to pass the mad animal and was knocked down and her arm was broken before she could get out of the way.

Later on efforts were made to get the bull to the cow pound, and Officer McKenna started up to arrest the animal, waving a policeman's bill, and its head and commanding it to be quiet. The bull waited until the officer got within a few feet of him and then made a savage attack on him. The bull got the officer on the end of its horns and wrestled him in getting over a four-foot fence, also tearing his coat.

Later on Chief of Police Dampier came upon the scene with his elephant gun and shot the animal, putting an end to its career.

FIND OLD PAPERS IN TEARING DOWN SHACK

CLYDE, N. Y., July 4.—In constructing the barge canal a trunk full of valuable documents has been discovered. Among the documents are two genuine George Washington signatures to sundry grants of soldiers during the Revolution; an old account book of the original John Jacob Astor, and a partial record of Lafayette's journey through New York state after the war. There are also a number of old deeds dating back to the time before public records were made of such papers. Duplicate copies were written on a single sheet of paper and the two were roughly torn apart and their genuineness was afterward proved by matching the irregular edges.

Among the old and acquired was a small lot on the edge of the Montezuma Marshes, on which stood a little two-room shack belonging to a hunter and trapper. In the trunk was found a Tremper of Kingston, who lived there during and just after the Revolutionary war.

Steps are being taken for the disposal of the records.

ARRIVE IN AUTOS.

The fighters did not go to the arena today until just before 2 o'clock, the time set for the 45-round fight to start. They dressed at their quarters and went to the ringside in automobiles. At the camps the morning was very quiet and neither the fighters nor their various spokesmen put in an appearance until the day was well advanced. Neither man had anything to add to the statements of entire confidence they have made. The weather indications are fine.

PROMOTER JACK CURLEY had lost the strained look of the last few days when he appeared this morning. He wore a broad smile, probably induced by reports from the box office, which ran until midnight last night to accommodate late comers. A guess that it would pass the 20-round mark and he selected the 25th as the last round. The other mutual players clustered their bets on the 12th and 13th rounds. Johnson himself reiterated today his statement that he would win in 15 rounds and rumor had it that he actually expected the fight to end in the 10th.

CAR STRIKES DRAY; TEAMSTER HURT

Collision Demolishes Wagon and Breaks Three Ribs and Leg of Driver.

L. Fraga, a teamster of Ninetieth avenue, met with a painful accident at Twenty-fifth avenue and East Fourteenth street shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon. Turning the corner sharply Fraga failed to see the approaching Leona Heights car No. 219, run by Motorman L. Martin, and the car crashed into the four-horse dray Fraga was driving. Fraga was hurled to the ground and his left leg and three ribs were broken, besides lacerations and bruises. The dray was partially demolished and the front of the car torn away. There were a number of passengers on the car and for a time it seemed hard to avert a panic on the line as the horse held up for half an hour.

FISH WORMS PASS FOR CASH DURING SHORTAGE

MOUNT CARMEL, Ill., July 4.—Fish bait at present is one of the scarcest commodities to be found in this city and vicinity, and fishermen are most numerous. As a result many of the small boys are again overtaking dising worms for a lively market.

NOTED DANCER LOSES MANY COSTLY JEWELS

LONDON, July 4.—At a recent garden party given by Pavlova at her house in Hampstead Heath, which was attended by the cream of English society, including a score of peeresses, the dancer was robbed of jewels worth $5000.

The theft was not discovered until the guests had gone and the dancer was about to go to the Palace Theater, where she is dancing nightly. The lost jewels include a large necklace given to Pavlova by a member of the Russian nobility in honor of her dancing.

JENNETTE WANTS FIGHT.

A telegram addressed to Referee Smith, ringside, was received just before the fight. It was signed by McMahon Brothers, N. Y., and was a request for a Joe Jennette-Johnson meet in that city. Another message from New York asked that Johnson be challenged from the ring for Jennette.

It added that Victor Breyer of Paris offered Johnson $20,000 for a 30-round contest there with Jennette.

At Palmer wired a challenge to the winner, saying he had posted a $5000 forfeit in Cincinnati. Luther McCarthy wired Flynn a win or lose challenge. The fight to be in New York if accepted.

Why Women Are Not RICH.

Man is a millionaire many times over in the possession of blood cells. Woman is not quite so rich, for scientists have proven that the normal man has five million—the woman only four and a half million to a cubic millimeter of blood.

A decrease in number of red blood corpuscles and a person looks pale—in fact, is anemic, the blood does not get the right food and probably the stomach is disordered.

Dr. H. V. Pierce found years ago that a glyceric extract of golden seal and Oregon grape roots, queen's root and bloodroot with black cherrybark, would help the assimilation of the food in the stomach, correct liver ills and in Nature's own way increase the red blood corpuscles. This medicine he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By assimilating the food eaten the system is nourished and the blood takes on a rich red color. Nervousness is only "the cry of the starved nerves for food," and when the nerves are fed on rich red blood the person loses those irritable feelings, sleeps well at night and is refreshed in the morning.

Nervousness is only "the cry of the starved nerves for food," and when the nerves are fed on rich red blood the person loses those irritable feelings, sleeps well at night and is refreshed in the morning.

Dr. H. V. Pierce found years ago that a glyceric extract of golden seal and Oregon grape roots, queen's root and bloodroot with black cherrybark, would help the assimilation of the food in the stomach, correct liver ills and in Nature's own way increase the red blood corpuscles. This medicine he called Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. By assimilating the food eaten the system is nourished and the blood takes on a rich red color. NATURAL GAS IN ALABAMA

U. S. Geological Survey Issues Second Edition of Report on Fayette Gas Area.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—The United States Geological Survey has published a second edition of its report on the Fayette natural gas fields of Alabama, written by M. J. Munn. About seventy square miles of territory was investigated by Munn, and in his report, attention was called to the restricted extent of the gas field developed at that time, and a location was suggested for a test well, which has later proved to be the only successful well out of probably a dozen tests in and around that field. In his report Munn suggested that the northern portion of Fayette county, the western part of Walker county, the eastern part of Lamar county, and the southern part of Marion county probably contain small areas in which oil and gas occur in paying quantities. Since the publication of the report a few test wells have been drilled in these counties, and some oil and gas are reported to have been found in one or more of them, though it is not known that these products occur in commercial quantities.

TINY DOG TERRIFIES BIG ZOO ELEPHANT

NEW YORK, July 4.—Visitors to the Bronx Zoo enjoyed the spectacle of Gunda, the largest elephant in captivity, and one of the most vicious, completely humbled by a tiny dog which had crept into his enclosure. The trumpeting of the elephant drowned the sharp barks of his small tormentor and drew crowds from all over the park.

Gunda is respected for his temper, and only his trainer, Walter Thuman, dares to go within reach of his trunk and tusks. Never before had his valor been questioned. Yesterday a small mongrel roamed into the paddock which adjoins the elephant house, and coming suddenly upon the half asleep Gunda, frightened him from some jungle dream and startled him into a frenzy of fear.

Trumpeting with fright, the elephant retreated, while the dog, encouraged by the onlookers and pleased with his own prowess, pressed his close. Gunda was finally backed into the corner of his house, and there, standing on his hind legs, called lustily for aid against the small figure which harked at his feet. Thuman appeared and chased the pup away, but Gunda remained for some time trembling in his corner, and was still a crestfallen monarch when the last of the jeering spectators had departed.

RAILROAD IS SUED BY LYNCHED MAN'S WIDOW

WASHINGTON, July 4.—Whether a railroad that carries a mob to a town to lynch a man is liable to damages to the victim's widow and children is a new point to be brought before the supreme court of the United States.

Mrs. Annie May Rogers and her three children sued the Vicksburg, Shreveport & Pacific Railway Company on charges of having carried by special train a mob from Monroe, La., to Tallulah, La., where Rogers was lynched.

He was charged with murdering a man and was about to be released on the ground that he had been tried once before on the charges. The lower court held that as a matter of law the railroad might be liable.

OAKLAND CELEBRATES 4TH IN SAFE AND SANE MANNER

BIRTHDAY OF NATION IS HONORED

Literary Exercises, Band Concert, Aquatic Sports Are Features of Day.

Prof. P. A. Van Tassel Furnishes Thrill With Balloon Ascension.

With flags flying from the twelfth story of Oakland's new city hall and from every available position on streets and public buildings, this city today began its annual celebration of Independence Day, which will continue with growing brilliance until a late hour tonight. In the hands of committee from the Merchants' Exchange and other bodies, various program features had been arranged and have been carried out with marked success, making one of the most successful observances of the day ever held here.

Although various fraternal organizations and playgrounds held games and private celebrations during the morning hours, the official observance of the day did not begin until 12 o'clock noon, when Battery B, Field Artillery, in command of Captain R. J. Faneuf, fired a formal salute of 48 guns to the Union. The salute was observed according to military regulations on the knoll in Lakeside park, overlooking Lake Merritt, the full battery with four guns firing at intervals of five seconds, one volley for each state in the Union. The battery, one of two in California, organized in Oakland within the past year, achieving excellent results in its maneuvers.

VAN TASSELL ASCENDS.
At 1:30 Professor Park A. Van Tassel, the local balloonist, furnished the second feature of the day by a balloon ascension, also from the shores of Lake Merritt. In his ascent Professor Van Tassel christened a large new balloon made in Oakland, the ascension being made possible through the efforts of O. P. Olsen and several prominent business concerns. The new balloon, "The City of Oakland," made its ascent successfully. Professor Van Tassel dropping souvenirs of the flight among the crowds.

Literary exercises at the bandstand to the natural amphitheater of Lakeside park were held, beginning at 1 o'clock, Joaquin Miller, the poet of the Sierras, being present to read one of his own poems, while Rev. William Day Simonds, pastor of the Unitarian church, was orator of the day.

REV. SIMONDS SPEAKS.
In delivering his oration, "Declaration of Independence of the Twentieth Century," Rev. Simonds spoke as follows:

"A hundred and thirty-six years ago a few brave men established here a new nation based upon principles set forth in the American Declaration of Independence. Like the Magna Charta and the English bill of rights this document has been highly honored. It has also been severely criticized. It has been the subject of a rebellion which certain historians inform us never ought to have occurred."

"Such sentiments as these, my friends, are boldly and bravely uttered from pulp and platform and from the chairs of great universities. The question therefore is a live one—have we outgrown the Declaration of Independence? In our interest it is purely historical? Is the character of American liberty no more than an interesting reminiscence? Or, as a distinguished Chicago clergyman affirmed not long ago, must we conclude that this time-honored declaration is only an 'interesting falsehood'?"

"To reply, not that Emerson's words are eternally true: 'What is excellent as God is permanent.' 'A long time ago the law of gravitation was published to a world that has undergone marvelous changes, yet not the smallest fraction of that law can be safely overlooked in all the range of industry today. For sundry generations men have been working in an effort to apply the force of electricity to human affairs, and in some 3000 ways it ministers to man."

yet in all its varied uses the fundamental laws which govern the generation, transmission and application of electricity remain unchanged.

"So also is it in government. There are certain abiding laws of human association that never change. Men seek often to forget them, and sometimes scorn them. Yet they abide—these laws of nature and of human nature to the everlasting rule of men or parliaments, who refuse to recognize and obey them."

"The American Declaration of Independence is a living force in the twentieth century, and will be in the thirty-fifth, because it embodies and enforces the fundamental principles of genuine democracy. We can and must perfect the application of these principles, but we can never outgrow them."

"What are they? First, the doctrine of God-ordained, and therefore inalienable rights. This is said our fathers, a higher than human law; a law of justice and equality and fraternity which man did not enact and which man cannot annul. In the nature of things it must be possible to establish a social order which shall promote the well being of all. Statesmanship consists in the discovery and application of that higher law to the communal life of man. This is the foundation upon which our republic rests. Discard it and what remains? Nothing but the anarchy of the jungle, the reign of the strongest. To the cruel, the greedy, the crafty and the strong the earth and its riches belong, unless there be some higher law, and we name it the law of solidarity, by which we mean that the rich and the poor, the wise and the ignorant men and women, rise or fall together. But in advance of science, 135 years ago, our revolutionary fathers declared their faith in the God-ordained rights of the people. Outgrowth of that declaration? One might as well announce the passing of the stars and attempt to extinguish the sun in heaven."

"FREE AND EQUAL."
"In the light of this first great truth it was easy for the founders of our republic to declare that 'all men are created free and equal.' These seven short words have given rise to more silly and sophomoric criticism than any other phrase in English, yet are they sublime by the law of the fathers. Over against the caste system of Asia and the class system of Europe these brave men stood in Independence Hall, a few days before his first inauguration: 'I had rather be assassinated on this spot than to give up the doctrine of equality. And yet men who call themselves Americans sneer at this foundation principle of our liberties, and in that face of the fact that for a century and more this country has been the land of opportunity for men of every race."

"And there are those sublime words, 'Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness as God ordained an inalienable right. What had Thomas Jefferson in mind when he wrote these inspired lines? Ages of oppression, wherein no man's life was secure by day or night; ages upon ages in which liberty had remained the dream of the martyr, dreary generations when no man dare to seek for happiness save as some tyrant might permit a little crumb of comfort to fall at the beggar's feet."

SPLENDID TEACHING.
"Life secure by law, liberty granted and safeguarded by law, the pursuit of happiness made possible by law—this is the splendid teaching of the Declaration of Independence."

"Who talks of outgrowing such sentiments? The anarchist who despises the people, the deluded agitator, who would barter his blood-bought freedom for a social security that must end in social slavery, but never an American—not one."

"And do you desire to abandon the doctrine that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed? What would you substitute for that fan-ragging principle? There is but one logical alternative. The divine right of kings. Power either rests with the people or with their hereditary rulers. Granted that power rests with the people, and it must follow that all power is subject to the law. The law is the law of the people, the law of the people, the law of the people. We thought we could deny every right of life and liberty to the black man, and for every drop of blood drawn with the lash we paid with another drawn with the sword."

SHAMEFUL HISTORY.
"We have forgotten our own gospel of liberty and justice in our dealings with our red brothers—the only native Americans—who can read that chapter of our country's history without sorrow and shame."

"The land is rocking from center to circumference today because power and wealth have trampled under foot the good old American principle of equal rights and opportunities. Once more we are in danger of denying those inalienable rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness which the fathers proclaimed."

"Outgrowth of the Declaration of Independence? Rather might we pray and strive to measure to its sublimity of ancient and modern times. We shall do so, prove worthy of the institutions bequeathed to us by the heroes of '78 and restored to national sway by those other heroes of '61-'65 who slaved the grime of posterity if we transmit unimpaired the spirit of that declaration which gave us a government, a country and a flag."

Following the reading of the original Declaration by Major E. A. Sherman, a veteran of the Mexican war, a miniature bell made from scrapings of the Liberty bell, now hanging in Independence Hall in Philadelphia, was shown. The bell is the property of Major Sherman, and has been made from bits of metal from the original secured in attempts to preserve the historic relic by filling away a portion of it.

Joaquin Miller made a short talk, saying: "I wanted to see you all once again; that is why I have come here today. You have laid the foundations of a great city here in Oakland, and you have the best part of San Francisco moved over here. I have come here to recite to you my 'Columbus Westward' because I have been asked to do so because the center of the poem is the spirit of California, which says 'on and on and on.'"

The poet then read "Columbus."

Miss Juanita Miller recited Miller's "Juanita."

The complete program for these exercises, which was in charge of a literary committee from the Exchange, consisting of W. E. Gibson (chairman), P. M. Fisher, A. A. Denison, E. A. O'Brien, E. A. Sherman, L. D. Inskeep and B. H. Adams, was as follows:

Songs of the Nation, Lampe.

HOO-HOO PLAN ANNUAL MEETING

Many Delegates Will Leave This Section for Asheville Convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—An event of national interest, and of special interest to California lumbermen, is the twenty-first annual meeting of the Copartnated Order of Hoo-Hoo, which will occur at Asheville, N. C., July 18, 19, 20. Hoo-Hoo has a large membership in this section.

Hoo-Hoo is a national and international organization composed of lumbermen and men engaged in allied industries, with a membership extending over the entire territory in the Union (including Alaska, the Philippines and the Hawaiian Islands) and the following foreign countries: Africa (the Transvaal), Argentine republic, Brazil, Australia, Canada, Belgium, Denmark, England, Scotland, Germany, Chile, Mexico, Nicaragua, Cuba and Panama.

Hoo-Hoo is governed by nine general officers called the supreme nine. These are elected each year. The men composing the present supreme nine are as follows:

Snark of the Universe—E. Stringer, Esq., San Francisco, W. Va.

Senior Hoo-Hoo—J. F. Judd, St. Louis, Mo.

Junior Hoo-Hoo—F. W. Trower, San Francisco, Cal.

Bojorn—Thomas Patterson, Hamilton, Ont., Canada.

Servenotter—J. H. Baird, Nashville, Tenn.

Jabberwock—J. M. Letter, Portland, Ore.

Custocallan—T. L. O'Donnell, Sanford, Miss.

Arconoper—John C. Ray, Waco, Tex.

Gurdon—W. T. Carroll, Uniontown, Pa.

In addition to the supreme nine, there are also state officers called vicegerent snarks. There are now about a hundred vicegerent snarks, some of the states having two or more. The state officers for California are: J. T. Dato, Los Angeles; Fred S. Palmer, San Francisco; E. T. Rohle, East Auburn.

Hoo-Hoo has no local lodges, but initiatory meetings, or concatenations, as they are called, are held whenever and wherever there is a sufficient number of men eligible to membership. Since last October upwards of sixty concatenations have been held and nearly a thousand new members added. A general meeting of Hoo-Hoo is held once a year. In 1910 the annual meeting took place in San Francisco and was a notable event.

EXPECT LARGE CROWD.
It is expected that the meeting at Asheville will be unusually well attended, as the date falls about the time most people take some sort of vacation trip. Formerly it was the custom of Hoo-Hoo to hold the annual meeting in September, beginning on the "fifth" day of the ninth month at nine minutes past nine. A cat has nine lives and it was deemed proper for a follower of the Great Black Cat to make the magic number as fully as possible. It was found, however, that September is a busy time for lumbermen, and the date was changed to July. Extensive preparations for the annual meeting of the members are under way at Asheville.

For the past fifteen years Nashville, Tenn., has been headquarters of the Hoo-Hoo. There the very extensive records are kept, and through the scrivener's office all the official correspondence passes. In Nashville also is published the official organ of Hoo-Hoo, a monthly magazine called The Bulletin. June issue of The Bulletin contains the following in regard to the growth of the order during the past year:

"Some of the concatenations have been extraordinarily good ones, constituting, indeed, real events in the history of the order. The Puget Sound region has distinguished itself by the number and high character of initiatives. As for the Pacific coast, it is safe to say that the order is in better condition there than ever before. On the Atlantic seaboard also Hoo-Hoo has prospered. In the United States and in North Carolina very few meetings have been held. In the southern states a very gratifying degree of enthusiasm has been manifested."

Waltz, "Dreams of Childhood," Waldekeuf.
Cultrasser, "Attange," Ellenberg.
Descriptive Fantasia, "Recollections of the War," Bayer.
INTERMISSION.
American Fantasia, Victor Herbert.
Selection, "When Johnnie Comes Marching Home," Englander.
Dance, "In the Shadows," Herman Pink.
Sextette from "Lucia," Donizetti.
Patrol, "The Blue and the Gray," Dalbey.
"AMERICA."
At the same time, on Lake Merritt, a program of aquatic sports was held under the direction of C. M. Farrell of the Dolphin club and the local entertainment committee, consisting of H. N. Gard, chairman; R. Robertson, H. C. Coward, D. Crawford, H. Schleuter, W. V. Harrington, G. H. Mason, L. H. Davidson, Adelbert Wilson, Captain R. Faneuf, Captain C. J. Orton, Captain O. A. Sullivan, W. G. Logan, L. Aber.

This evening fireworks to cost in the neighborhood of $1000 will be shown at Lake Merritt by the California Newton Fireworks company. At the same time a band concert will be given in City Hall park, the band being stationed on the balcony of the city hall.

In addition to the Merchants' Exchange committee on the literary exercises and entertainment, the celebration was in the hands of the following committee from the same organization:

Home-Made Artillery Brings Many Injuries to Jubilators.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—Five boys ranging in ages from fourteen to nineteen years old were more or less seriously injured by the explosion of toy cannons with which they were playing this afternoon. J. F. Graham, aged fourteen, of 812 Indiana street, and John Minkel, aged 15, of 1806 Army street, were lighting a home-made cannon at 25th and Iowa street, when the powder ignited before they could get away. Graham received a charge in the face and will probably lose his right eye. Minkel was also injured on the hands and face and his left eye is affected.

Philip Parver, aged 13, of 495 Leland avenue, had the first finger of his right hand taken off in the premature discharge of the cannon at his home.

All three were treated at the Poirer hospital. Andrew Shrewbridge, of 231 Dorland street, had his face burned with powder and Max Stenlow, 17 years old, had his right thumb taken off in an explosion of powder at Sixteenth and Sanchez street. Both were treated at the Central Emergency hospital.

EXPLODED FIRECRACKERS.
Joseph Roll and Girard Davis, a mechanic and chauffeur, were arrested shortly after midnight last night by Sergeant William Brackett on charges of violating City Ordinance No. 3255 concerning the discharge of firecrackers within the city limits. The two young men were afterward released on furnishing $5 bail each.

JEWELRY STOLEN.
SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—While the family were at the theater last night, burglars entered the home of J. H. Dirkes, 2624 Diamond street, and stole jewelry to the amount of $225.

IN EFFORT TO ESCAPE
SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—In an attempt to escape the white slave squad which is making a raid on a hotel at 554 Broadway this morning, Peter Lafatta dropped from a second story window and was overcome after a struggle with the police.

Detectives Furman, Callahan and Harrison had made their way into the apartment in which were Lafatta and a woman, Marie Lott. Lafatta jumped from the window and dropped down almost into the arms of Policeman Hennessy. Both he and the woman were taken into custody and charged with vagrancy.

The squad also arrested Ray Magee, Dennis Patrick and Guy Wilbur. The last named was charged with a felony.

The Coffee Can Is Becoming A Sensitive Subject

A couple of years ago one could get a pound of fairly decent coffee for from 15 to 25 cts. Now that same coffee costs from 25 cts. to 45 cts, per pound and a further raise of 10 cts. is in prospect.

"There's a Reason"

Four years ago Brazil found that in spite of the fact that it was producing over 90% of the coffee consumed in the United States, its rich planters were not squeezing as much money out of Americans as they could and the Brazilian government was not receiving enough revenue from a product that was one of that country's chiefest products.

And so Brazil determined to levy tribute upon rich and prosperous America, even as the British taxed our tea in olden days; only this modern type of piracy was engineered and executed in a kid glove way.

Certain foreign capitalists (German, English and others) were called into consultation. They devised a scheme called "valorization." They started by buncing our American Congress into removing the import tax on coffee, and that done, Brazil immediately transferred the income to its own treasury by imposing an export tax. This was followed by perfecting a system whereby the Brazilian government could control the output and the price of coffee.

The net result has been that Brazil for the last three years has sold just what grades of coffee it wanted to sell, at any price it chose to fix; and in consequence the Brazilian government has shared with a syndicate of foreign money kings a profit of Hundreds of Millions of Dollars, every cent of which has come from the pockets of the American People.

This Is Where YOU Come In

The average coffee drinker knows that coffee is a really harmful drink to most folks. Headache, biliousness, indigestion and other signs of an up-set liver, as well as heart irritation, nervousness and sleeplessness, are too evident to most coffee drinkers to permit of their ignorance of that fact.

Economy to Health and Purse.

"There's a Reason"

If your grocer does not have Instant Postum, send his name and address and a 2-cent stamp to cover postage, and we will mail you a 5-cup sample tin.

ALBANY HOLDS
BIG CELEBRATIONTwenty-two Divisions in the Parade, Which Is Feature of the Day.

ALBANY, July 4.—With parade, street carnival, baseball game and literary exercises this city today celebrated Independence Day in fitting style. The day's program will culminate this evening with a Mardi Gras ball for which most elaborate preparations have been made. The city was filled with visitors for the day. Parties from Oakland and Richmond sending the largest delegations.

The parade was the first and most spectacular feature of the day. J. H. Paul, director general of the day, and his grand marshal, his aide, George W. Nickerson, E. Dundas, Joseph Mattos, Joseph Tholan and Edward Anderson.

There were 22 separate divisions in the parade. The College City band, directed by H. Vollmer, headed the line of march followed by a color guard from the Grand Army post. The police department turned out in force led by John Glavinovich, city marshal. Followed next the grand marshal and his aides and the trustees in an automobile provided for them.

The first of the floats came next, representing the Woman's Improvement Club. Mrs. J. H. Paul, president of the club, was in charge of this float. The Albany fire department, Thomas McCourtney, chief, was represented by all five companies and was followed by the members of the Albany baseball team in uniform, with Joseph Mattos, their manager, at the head.

Di Cerrito Club of which Miss Lillian Lindquist is president, had the next float in the parade, in the rear of which marched the excellently equipped and trained drill team of California. Aeris of Eagles, No. 1433, Charles A. Becker of the Berkeley police force, captain and drill master of the team, led this section.

A bicycle squad coming next, preceded one of the most beautiful floats of the parade. The great wagon on which it was mounted was completely hidden by banks of poppies, their glorious orange relieved here and there by masses of greens. A number of little girls and boys rode in this float, which was in charge of Mrs. C. M. Nash. With Colonel F. E. Wilson, commanding the drill team, the Knights of the Macabees marched next. Oakland Lodge of Foresters and a drum corps followed this division.

The Pacific Coast other beautiful float followed next. Upon this, half buried in flowers, a quintet of little girls represented California, Washington, Oregon, Nevada and Arizona. Edward Anderson was in charge of the float.

Roberts presided over the opening of the day. Declaration of Independence. John J. Allen, city attorney of Albany and former district attorney, gave the oration of the day. Patriotic songs and a chorus of school children completed the program.

The rest and refreshment booths were thrown open immediately at the conclusion of the parade. The booths were two, one at the ball grounds, being in charge of Mrs. J. H. Commemorated Monday Evening.

Next Monday evening the regular monthly "dime entertainment" of the society will take place at Woodman hall, Twelfth street between Washington and Clay, being principally commemorative of the battle of Gettysburg.

The address of the evening will be given by Professor S. P. Meade on the battle of Gettysburg, illustrated by maps. A. S. Olney of Lookout Mountain Post, G. A. R., Berkeley, will read Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

Mrs. Parker will sing and Miss Hagin will give a piano solo. Refreshments will be served and a general good time enjoyed. The members of the various posts of the G. A. R. have been invited to attend all Illinoisans and their families and friends are urged to attend.

The officers of this organization have asked all natives and former residents of Illinois now resident in California to send in their names and addresses, together with place of birth or residence in Illinois, to the secretary, Mrs. B. Placher Frontier, 25 Twenty-seventh street, Oakland, telephone Oakland 8213.

The society recently participated in the dedication of the site for the Illinois building at the exposition grounds, later entertaining the Illinois commissioners at a banquet at the Key Route Inn. When the fair opens the Illinois building in order to meet the visitors from that state. The register is now at the Chamber of Commerce in care of Secretary A. A. Denison, a member of the society.

The annual picnic will take place at East Shore park, Stege, on Saturday, July 20.

GERMAR'S MODELS ARE FEATURED AT BROADWAY

German's models is a novelty at the Broadway for the last half of the week. The subjects are exceptionally good, showing the world's latest masters in high-class work. She has a voice that is well fitted for light opera selections, and this number serves as a real treat.

Jack Irwin, who claims to be "the fool of the family," has a lively patter and a new line of talk that is well received, displaying considerable talent.

The McCall trio introduces some new ideas in song dancing. Frances Schmitz, the girl who stars the pictured melodies, has shown good judgment in her selection of a national song and a program of songs and story pictures round out a good number.

TIGHT LACING IS
CAUSE OF DEATHWife of Physical Culturist Is
Victim of Too-Tight
Corset.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—According to an autopsy on the body of Mrs. Julian R. Brandon, who died while being placed on the operating table at the Lane hospital last Sunday evening, death was hastened through pressure of a new and heavy corset which caused peritonitis.

Mrs. Brandon was the wife of a physical culturist, residing at 2022 California street, who conducts a gymnasium at 1832 California street. She died on Saturday night. On returning home Mrs. Brandon complained of pains in the waist and expressed the opinion that the pains arose through tightening a corset to make a new dress fit better.

Later in the night Mrs. Brandon suffered such extreme pains that Dr. I. V. Thorne was called. He advised an operation immediately, but Brandon was loath to permit it.

Dr. T. L. Mahoney and Dr. A. R. Brandon, a brother-in-law of the woman, then were summoned. They, too, urged an operation.

It was not until late Sunday evening that either the patient or her husband would consent. Mrs. Brandon was taken to Lane hospital, but died before reaching the operating table.

NOT USED TO TIGHT LACING
Mrs. Brandon was not accustomed to particularly tight lacing. She said that the first pains she had were when she put on her new corset, which was of a distinctly heavy build.

Brandon, who is an advocate of the free and loose clothing, affected by two physical culturists, said that she was against such practices and never wore corsets that in any way caused pain. She brought up her daughter in the same belief.

"The wearing of this tight corset on Saturday was done in the exigency of the moment. She wanted to wear the dress that evening and there was no time to have it altered."

She was not until late Sunday evening that either the patient or her husband would consent. Mrs. Brandon was taken to Lane hospital, but died before reaching the operating table.

COLORED MOTION
PICTURES COMINGIndian Durbar to Be Shown at Macondough in Kinema-color Films.

The famous natural color motion picture production "The Durbar in Kinema-color" comes to the Macondough theater July 7, direct from the Cort theater, San Francisco, where they have been exhibiting for the past four weeks to crowded houses. The pictures have created an unprecedented sensation there, and were acclaimed by the press and public alike to be the most wonderful motion pictures ever shown in San Francisco.

The crowning of King George and Queen Mary of England as emperor and empress of India amid the millions of half a million people, was without question the most pretentious spectacle in the history of the world. The accurate reproduction in Kinema-color (natural color) the "last word in world's wonders."

The Kinema-color pictures of the London coronation of King George and Queen Mary which received a great ovation in Oakland last fall are surpassed in both beauty of color and magnitude of subject by the Durbar pictures. Charles Urban, inventor of the Kinema-color process of natural color pictures, says the light in India was perfect and the wealth of green in the Orient afforded a magnificent subject for the Kinema-color camera.

The Durbar pictures, while brilliant, are soft in tone and neither flicker nor dazzle.

There are about 14,000 feet of film beginning with the royal visit to Bombay; the first picture arriving at Selma, arrival at reception tent Delhi fort, gun firing by the royal horse artillery, State entry in the Grand garden party, scenes within the elephant stockade, the coronation Durbar ceremony at Delhi in the presence of the British emperor, review of 50,000 troops by the King and Queen.

During the week there will be Wednesday and Saturday matinees at 2.30, and Sunday matinees at 2.30. An explanatory lecture lends considerable to the entertainment.

DISTILLATE BURNS KILL
WOODLAND RANCH HAND

WOODLAND, July 4.—Fred J. Brandenburg died at the Woodland sanitarium yesterday, the victim of a frightful accident, which occurred on the Herman West ranch four miles north of Dunsmuir Tuesday evening.

The young man had been in charge of a caterpillar engine, and the supposition is that while using distillate to clean grease off the engine it came in contact with the hot pipe causing an immediate explosion. Brandenburg was burned from head to foot. He was conveyed to this city for treatment, but physicians could do little for him.

Brandenburg was 25 years of age and a native of Colusa county. He is survived by his parents, two brothers and four sisters, all of whom are prominent settlers in the Sacramento valley.

DRIVER RISKS LIFE
TO SAVE PASSENGERS

ORVILLE, July 4.—Eleven passengers of the Greenville-Kiddie stage narrowly escaped death yesterday when the stage rolled over an embankment near Kiddie. There were three women and a child among the eleven passengers. In a moment the engine had been overturned and in an instant the vehicle was off the grade. Driver Dave Hackett cried to all to jump and the men got out, but Hackett was forced to cling to his rolling coach and assist the women and child out. All escaped with slight bruises.

MILITARY MEN
AT BIG PICNICRichmond and Oakland Veterans Celebrating Fourth
at Grand Canyon.

RICHMOND, July 4.—Stores and residences are displaying the national colors everywhere in Richmond today and the small boy is in evidence with his firecrackers, but there is no general celebration. A very large concourse of citizens attended the big military picnic at Grand Canyon park, given by the Spanish War veterans of this place and Battery B of Oakland, where about three thousand people are enjoying the music, military sports, dancing and other entertainment. The Richmond and bay cities' Maennerchor was an attractive feature of the occasion, as was the military band.

The battery B committee on arrangements comprised the following: Captain Faneuil, Lieutenant Huber, Lieutenant Kelly, Quartermaster Davis, Sergeant Riley, Sergeant Enser, Corporal Gleason, Corporal Ryan, Corporal Mallinson, Musician Swales, Private Groves, Neederhous, Seelye, Lieutenant Hagan, Lieutenant Vary, Sergeant White, Sergeant Morse, Sergeant Hill, Corporal Glass, Robinson and Alexander, Musician Wason, Private Blake, Botsford Patterson and Emerson.

The Richmond committee is composed of E. E. Grow, George Haab, Jacob Brady, Carl Brueggemann and Sidney Pennington.

PURE FOOD LAW MAKES MUCH FUN AND TROUBLE

CHICAGO, July 4.—A hungry passenger in a dining car at Rock Island started to eat a breakfast of the dishes from the table.

"Where are you going with my eggs?" shouted the famishing one. "We're jee' crosin' into Iowa, sah," said the waiter. "The law says we ain't been inspected, sah. Yeh sah, they gotta be government inspected."

One of this sort will be of frequent occurrence if the pure food law as interpreted by Judge McPherson in the United States district court, is upheld in Illinois.

Judge McPherson fined a young man from Roma 50 cents for sending a box of unsolicited foodstuffs to his sister in Philadelphia, in violation of the law against the interstate shipment of edibles.

By the provisions of the statute it would be illegal for a Chicago youth to send his fiancée in Indianapolis a box of candy.

A Crown Point nuptial party would have to leave the wedding cake behind, or take a government inspector along.

"WAR" TO BE WAGED
ON SAN FRANCISCO

SACRAMENTO, July 4.—Adjutant General Forbes received word from General R. Evans, chief of the militia division at Washington yesterday that the senate had approved the house resolution appropriating $1,000,000, which will authorize a mobilization of the militia of three states, California, Utah and Arizona, at San Francisco between August 10 and 25.

Ten thousand troops, members of the National Guard of these states, and the regular army men of Monterey and San Francisco Presidios will be mustered at the encampment in an attack on San Francisco.

One division will land at Monterey bay and proceed down the Salinas valley toward San Francisco while an opposing division will march south from San Francisco to meet it. The battle will be staged in Santa Clara valley about 100 miles from San Francisco.

San Francisco will be used in the maneuvers.

NEW YORK, July 4.—Multi-millionaires as debtors for public board bills figure as one of the incidents in the bankruptcy of the Purcell Manufacturing Company, creditors of this city, the schedule of which fashionable but unfortunate investment were filed yesterday in the federal court here. John D. Rockefeller is listed as owing $5 cents for breakfast rolls. John D. Jr. is down as a backslider for $15.55 worth of bread while W. K. Vanderbilt is listed as owing $4 cents for Easter lilies.

The Purcell Company failed for $83,837 and has lost $22,000 in astronomical assets to produce a dividend.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS GHOSTS AND SPICY LETTERS FIGURE IN DIVORCE ACTION

"Her Devilment" Proves to Be Ride of "Switchback" at Winter Gardens.

LONDON, July 4.—Cross petitions for divorce were brought by Captain Colley of the Royal Field Artillery, a son of Archdeacon Colley, and his wife, in the divorce court. Colley cited as co-respondents Eric Upton, the eldest son of Viscount Templeton, Lieutenant in the King's Royal Rifles, and Alec Clunes Beach, a performer under the name of Pierrot.

In the spring of 1910 Captain Colley, who was then stationed at Aldershot, was supposed to find letters from Eric Upton in his wife's jewel case. They were all signed "Eric," and the following is a sample:

"So sorry I was such a pig; do please forgive me. I do not think I shall ever forget that evening. I was so sure that you were fed up with me and would not take; I was so bitterly disappointed because I love you dearly and worship the ground you tread."

"Goodbye, dear child, for the present. With me."

Colley while on the stand said he was a spiritualist. He acknowledged that the spirits had not guided him in obtaining evidence against his wife, but they had guided his father, the Archdeacon, who had the famous controversy some time ago with a well-known exposé of spiritualist humbugs. The archdeacon had received a spirit letter signed "Adoniah," in which the Duke of Wellington gave certain information not yet to be mentioned.

Captain Colley went on to testify that his wife, while in India, complained that he did not play polo, and he did not believe like other officers. She urged him to flirt with other women. Counsel read a letter from Colley to his wife from Blackpool, a popular seaside resort, which caused "oars of laughter. The captain wrote:

"I have had terrific luck. I met a lady who was out for devilment with me. We danced until 11:30 o'clock, and took her to her home, which was a huge house. The family was away. She was frightened at first when I asked her to dance. She was an Irish girl, and I suppose she thought she was doing some awful thing."

"What was the devilment?" asked counsel.

"We went on the 'switchback,'" replied the captain.

The curtain fell amid loud laughter. The second act will be given tomorrow.

Girl Is Slain.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., July 4.—On persistent demands from the people of the neighborhood, District Attorney Lawrence S. Rupp yesterday ordered an investigation into the death of Lulu Kline, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Kline of Upper Saucony, reported as a suicide. The matter was started by Dr. W. J. Lowright of Center Valley, who came to the city yesterday to interview the district attorney and the coroner and urge action.

According to the story given out immediately after the tragedy, the girl was found dead in the kitchen by her mother, who came to the city yesterday to interview the district attorney and the coroner and urge action.

Dr. Lowright told that her father had made all his employees stand in a row alongside the corpse and that he then made them all raise their right hands and swear that the girl was a suicide and that they had witnessed the passing of her soul into hell.

She Seeks Office.

PASADENA, July 4.—The first woman candidate for the legislature is to be put forth from the Pasadena and Altadena district by the Prohibition League. She is Mrs. A. L. Hamilton, president of the California Congress of Mothers, president of the local Federation of Parent Teachers, a prominent clubwoman, and a woman of the highest character.

Hamilton's candidacy will be announced formally. Prohibitionists are circulating petitions for Mrs. Hamilton as a candidate. More than half the necessary number of signatures have been secured. Should the Pasadena woman accept the honor she will be the first feminine candidate for the state legislature under the new equal suffrage amendment.

Mrs. Hamilton declared her willingness today to become a candidate for legislative honors in the event of an equal change for her to win. Inasmuch as she is one of Pasadena's most prominent and most popular women, her friends declare she would win easily.

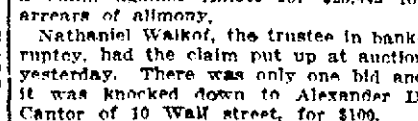

AMERICAN BUILDERS TURN OUT 229 VESSELS

WASHINGTON, July 4.—American ship builders completed 229 vessels of all descriptions during the month of June. Most of the crafts were of the smaller wooden steamer variety and the total gross tonnage for the lot was only 81,885.

Nine steel steam vessels were turned out, the largest being the Renown of 4415 gross tons built at Lorain, Ohio, for the Standard Oil Company and the Sol Duc of 1667 gross tons built at Seattle, Wash., for the Seattle Construction Company.

The Value of Blossoms

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright, 1912, Lillian Russell.)

OF all the wonders of nature flowers express the most perfect beauty. Ruskin says: "Wherefore we do not find that flowers and fair trees and kindly skies are given only where man may see them and be fed by them. But the spirit of God works everywhere alike where there is no eye to see, covering all lonely places with an equal glory, using the same pencil and outpouring the same splendor. In the caves of the water where the sea snakes swim and in the desert where the satyrs dance, among the fir trees of the stork and the rocks of the conies, as among those highest creatures whom he has made capable witnesses of his working."

I always feel hurt when I see a person break a rose stem or tear up a flower by the roots. Persons who really intelligently love flowers are just as happy to see them growing as to cull them. And it is often that they would leave them on their stems were they not educated to think that the full blossoms must be renewed to make way for the opening buds.

When you see a dear old lady pulling dead leaves from her plants it is more often for the comfort and beauty of the plants than from her desire to pull the leaves.

Some people wonder why flowers grow better for old people than for young ones. It is because the older people are more patient and intelligent in their treatment of them.

Remember: Flowers are missionaries from heaven, combining every virtue of glory and sympathy to humanity.

Answers to Queries

MINNIE J.—Powder will not hurt your face if the face is cleansed each night before retiring. First cleanse the face with a good cold cream, rubbing it well into the skin and allowing it to remain for about fifteen minutes. Then take what is left off with a soft cloth. Wash the face in warm water and plenty of good pure soap, using a complexion brush to get all of the dirt out of the pores. Rinse the face thoroughly, first in warm water, then real cold, always using the cold last. This will harden the flesh and close the pores. This treatment is also good for blackheads and pimples.

I cannot give you a formula for a face powder. I am afraid you would not be satisfied with it, as it is hard to make and has to be sifted and powdered so finely that it is a great deal of trouble. Then it is not as good as those you can buy. There are several good powders on the market, and I know you would be better satisfied with one you would buy than one you would make yourself.

MARIE G. S.—I shall be happy to send you the green soap treatment and an excellent cleansing cream for blackheads if you will send me a stamped addressed envelope. Also a bleach for the skin.

DAVENPORT.—The bags of orris root would not hold their scent if you just dampened them with the toilet water. Mix the orris root with lilac sachet and put it in little silk bags and place them among your clothing or sew them into your dresses. This will give a sweet and lasting odor. The use of an eye cup is the better way to bathe the eyes. A solution of boric acid and water is good for bathing the eyes. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope I shall send you the formula for a good eye wash.

L. M. F.—There must be some reason for your hair falling as it did all of a sudden. Did you ever try to move the scalp with the tips of your fingers? It should move easily, but if it doesn't then this is probably the cause of your hair falling. Scalp massage is necessary for keeping the hair and scalp in a healthy condition. When the scalp adheres to the underlying bones the hair will lose its luster and become dull, dry, and begin to fall. Each night, after taking the hair down, devote about ten minutes to scalp massage. In a week or two you will see a vast difference in your hair. It will become full of life and in time will stop falling. I shall be happy to send you complete instructions for scalp massage and formula for an excellent hair tonic if you will send me a stamped addressed envelope. I shall be glad to send you a hair tonic formula and directions for scalp massage, and formulas for a healing salve for pimples and for good cold cream.

ELLA N.—The color of the cheeks usually depends upon your physical condition. Good pure food, plenty of exercise, and plenty of fresh air are the only things that will give the cheeks a healthy color of their own. I would advise you to walk as much as you can and take plenty of exercise in the open air. Now that the days are warm and pleasant there are many outdoor games to be played. If you will send me a stamped addressed envelope I shall be glad to send you a hair tonic formula and directions for scalp massage, and formulas for a healing salve for pimples and for good cold cream.

G. L.—If your skin is dry this is the cause of the tiny wrinkles all over it. What you need is a good skin food to soften it. If you care for it, send me a stamped addressed envelope and I shall be glad to send you the formula for an excellent skin food with directions for facial massage. I cannot print them on account of lack of space.

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

'CONVENTION' HELD AT LA HONDA CAMP

Simultaneously with the Republican convention which recently closed in Chicago, the boys of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, held a similar convocation at the La Honda camp for the summer.

The parliamentary officers proposed by the national committee were as follows: Edwin L. Leonard, chairman; Emil Baldwin, secretary. A motion was made to the effect that these officers be elected by the permanent officers of the convention. Upon the roll call of states for the vote of the delegates, many addresses were delivered for the three Republican candidates. A few minutes were allowed to each representative to state his views. Alan Dennison and Brownie Maurer spoke for La Follette; Harrison Ryker, Clarence Street and H. N. Holmes for Taft; Albert Bryant, Le Roy King and L. Ray Ogden for Roosevelt. Mr. Frost, however, won the nomination by a large majority.

Edwin Leonard, who presided over the convention was president of the freshman debating society of the Oakland high school.

Mrs. Budd which contain the doctrinal beliefs of her religious organization. It has been established that the will was executed within thirty days of her death, and as she gave a large legacy to her nephew on the condition that he carry on the religious work, the attorneys contend that it is void. Mrs. Budd devoted the latter years of her life in perfecting the cause and it was her wish to have the money go to the cause.

Alimony Claim Sold.

NEW YORK, July 4.—Charles Shengood, the federal auctioneer, has sold many curious things in various bankruptcy auction sales, but yesterday capped the climax when he sold a claim for alimony.

S. Elliott, a former comic opera singer and divorced wife of John Elliott, who was president of the Consolidated Arizona Smelting Company, on September 28 last and in the schedule of assets was a claim against Elliott for $28,445 for arrears of alimony.

Nathaniel Waikoff, the trustee in bankruptcy, had the claim put up at auction yesterday. There was only one bid and it was knocked down to Alexander D. Cantor of 10 Wall street, for $100.

May Lose Legacy.

STOCKTON, July 4.—Fate may decree that the very means taken by Mrs. Inez A. Budd, who was the widow of the late Governor James H. Budd, to perpetuate a religious cult which she founded will be used to defeat her wishes. In the contest of the will attorneys for Clara A. Budd, a sister of the testatrix, and Homer Noll, a nephew, yesterday filed a petition in the probate court to have the will set aside.

MANY TO ENTER OAKLAND HIGH

Many graduates of the Durant school will enter the Oakland high school, where they will engage in the athletic and literary activities. Prior to the close of the June term the outdoor diversions and socials will be held at the school grounds. The new season will be renewed with the opening of the new semester.

Etta Cardwell, a member of the class of June, 1912, was a leader in the affairs of the school. She will register in the Oakland high school, where she will continue her education along the higher branches of study.

MRS. D'ARROW ILL.

LOS ANGELES, July 4.—Mrs. Clarence Darrow, who since the beginning of the trial of her husband has been constantly at the side of the defendant, has broken down under the nervous strain to which she has been subjected and is confined to her bed, threatened with nervous prostration. Dr. Paul Gerson, the attending physician, states that she is unable to sleep and is in a state of hysteria, due to the ordeal of the trial.

Alone With Corpse.

LONDON, July 4.—A weird, gruesome story of two aged sisters, whose wish had been not to be parted in death, comes today from Gateshead, where one old lady was found at the point of death beside the corpse of her long dead sister.

One of the two relatives, who had not heard from them in a long time, called yesterday to see the sisters, and called to get a reply to her knock. The door was broken down, and the younger sister was found in a state of collapse, unable to speak, beside the mummified corpse of the elder woman. She was attacked only in a nightmare. A doctor who was called in declared that the younger woman had been dead at least a year.

WINS SCHOLARSHIP FOR GOOD WORK IN SCHOOL

Katherine Wood, a member of the class of June, 1912, of the Oakland high school has been awarded a scholarship from Mills College as the result of her excellent work in the local institution. During her senior year she was the class prophet, which is an honor conferred upon a pupil by the high senior students. It is an elective position. Her officers were Maurice Knowles, president; Helen Brock, vice-president; Doris Radley, recording secretary; John Cooper, treasurer; Clarence D. Lancy, financial secretary; Helen Hathaway, class historian and Herbert Maler, sergeant-at-arms.

In the Ecclesia Miss Wood was an enthusiastic worker and an officer. She was one of the leading debaters in the society, which was organized to promote an interest in parliamentary law and public speaking.

The student was a member of the dramatic club, under whose auspices many successful performances were given. Miss Wood was a member of the club and her histrionic ability upon a number of occasions.

Among the final events of the year was the dance given by the organization. It was managed by the following committee: Miss Wood, chairman; Mrs. W. H. Caldwell, floor manager; Beth Bradley, Catherine Thomson, Katherine Wood, Harry Creech and Chester De Lancy.

PRESIDENT'S OLD HOME SOLD.

CINCINNATI, O., July 4.—The home in which President and Mrs. William Howard Taft first started housekeeping was sold yesterday at auction, the price paid for the property being $185,000. The home was bought by a local real estate dealer for a Cincinnati doctor. The house was built more than 25 years ago.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two percent, or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven percent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, liniments and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse, but you must see that it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Castoria causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and always cures.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

REBELS IN RETREAT BEFORE MERCILESS FIRE

OROZCO FLEES NORTH IN TRAINS

Field Strewn With Dead and Wounded Soldiers at Bachimba.

Insurrectos Forced to Yield Strategic Positions in Hills and Gullies.

AT THE REBEL HEADQUARTERS, Machuca, Mex. July 4.—Under cover of darkness the entire rebel army withdrew today from Bachimba, a distance of 25 miles north to Machuca, which is but 15 miles below Chihuahua city. The rebels admit their defeat, attributing it to a lack of ammunition. The whole rebel army will retreat toward the American border, abandoning Chihuahua city to the federals.

General Orozco gave the order to retreat after his troops had been subjected to the heaviest fire they have yet experienced. The rebel commander and a large part of his force will return to Chihuahua city today for a temporary halt.

General Orozco will go to Juarez opposite El Paso, Texas, on the Mexican Central, perhaps turning back then southwest along the Mexican North-western railroad to Casas Grandes which is now the rebel rallying place.

TO INVADE SONORA. From Casas Grandes, which is in a mountainous country where the federal artillery cannot be brought into action advantageously, the rebels will invade the rich state of Sonora. The retreat followed a council of war long after midnight.

It was the unanimous opinion of the rebel chief that a further waste of ammunition was foolhardy if the revolution was to be continued. It was decided to follow a new plan altogether.

Flying columns will be sent north, west and south. The strongest will move to the south to co-operate with Col. Muriel, last reported at Nazas in the southernmost of the state of Durango, pursued by the federal forces under General Blanquet.

Just where General Orozco's headquarters will be located has not yet been determined. It is the rebel intention to cut the federal lines in every direction around Chihuahua as soon as the federals enter, which, however, will be delayed several days because several bridges for forty miles will have been destroyed between Bachimba and Chihuahua by nightfall.

When the last train left Bachimba the work of destroying bridges had begun. Rebel officers claim losses in yesterday's fight were slight.

ENEMY GONE. AT GENERAL HUERTA'S FEDERAL HEADQUARTERS, BACHIMBA, Mex. July 4.—When the federal artillery had fired a few shots at daybreak today and received no response from the hills north of Bachimba, flying squadrons of cavalry were sent forth by General Huerta to locate the enemy but the bird had flown. None but the dead and a few wounded were lying in the positions which yesterday the rebels had held in the mountain pass here.

A badly torn railroad north of the canyon indicated that, as heretofore, the rebels had withdrawn, destroying the railroad behind them as they proceeded.

The federal advance northward began today, the capture of Chihuahua being the objective. Daylight confirmed the federal victory of yesterday and enthusiasm in the government ranks rose to great heights, eagerness to pursue the rebels giving Huerta's forces a stimulus that was apparent as they marched north today.

Twenty-six cannon and 16 machine guns distributed on the east and west sides of the mountain pass had defeated the rebels, their artillery in comparison appearing defective.

AT GENERAL HUERTA'S FEDERAL HEADQUARTERS, Bachimba Station, Mex. July 4.—The semi-circular battle line of government troops at daybreak today renewed the attack on the rebels for possession of Bachimba canyon, the entrance to which for a distance of a mile, together with several high positions were gained by the federals in the opening of hostilities yesterday.

Twenty-six cannon and 16 machine guns distributed on the east and west sides of the mountain pass here opened fire on the rebels simultaneously. The rebel artillery in comparison seemed defective and erratic.

MANY DIE ON FIELD. Losses in the first day's fighting apparently were great as today the battlefield was strewn with the dead and wounded of both sides.

The rebels had clung tenaciously to their position, but the combined assaults of infantry and cavalry supported by the deadly fire of the artillery forced them to yield strategic hills and ranges overlooking the canyon.

The federal troops carried out orders with mathematical precision, conspicuous in the fighting besides General Huerta as the commander-in-chief were his lieutenants, Generals Rabago and Torres, as well as Raoul Madero, a brother of President Madero.

OROZCO AT CHIHUAHUA. CHIHUAHUA, Mex. July 4.—General Orozco arrived here at 11 o'clock this morning, but only a small portion of his army stopped here. The remaining troops went through the city at the rate of 15 miles an hour northward, affording none an opportunity to get off.

Determined to save the city if possible from looting and rioting, General Orozco declared that he had sent his troops in various directions from Machuca, avoiding a return to the city.

Federation Delegates Spend Day in Excursion on Bay and Visits to Public Playgrounds; Reception at Fairmont in Afternoon

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4.—The result of last night's balloting for officers of the General Federation of Women's clubs will not be made public until this evening's session. The count was concluded at one o'clock this morning but the official announcement must wait for the assembling of the delegates.

On account of the holiday no business was transacted today. The morning was devoted to a steam excursion around San Francisco bay, the women being the guests of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce. The excursionists stopped at several points of interest on the bay, returning to the San Francisco water front shortly after the noon hour.

The afternoon will be devoted to a reception at the Fairmont which will last until six o'clock. A large representation of delegates were in attendance all the afternoon, making the affair one of the leading functions of the convention.

A number of the delegates visited the public playgrounds and witnessed the special Fourth of July caucuses planned for their entertainment. The North Beach, South Side and Hamilton-square playgrounds were scenes of unusual festivities for the occasion.

The program for the evening will be as follows:

Sutter-street Pavilion.

8:15 o'clock—Music.
8:30 o'clock—Hawalian musicians.

of Chihuahua. He added that troop trains which had been sent through the city of Chihuahua without stopping would be halted at Sausa and Mocumtum 180 and 114 miles south of Juarez.

FOREIGNERS IN HIDING. The populace is nervous, and foreigners are keeping under cover. Juarez will be the rebel capital hereafter. Rebel Governor Felipe Gutierrez and members of the revolutionary legislature will move there today in a special train.

It is now confirmed that Juarez and Casas Grandes will soon receive the bulk of the rebel troops and that a determined stand will be made to hold Juarez.

Besides numerous political activities the delegates of the biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs passed a busy session yesterday. The readings of the reports from the heads of the departments of the library extension and music and the presentation of flags, including those of England, France, Sweden, Egypt, Canada, Australia and Japan with greetings from the foreign clubs were an important and impressive part of the day's proceedings.

Mrs. Philip North Moore, president of the Federation and presiding officer, announced that the board of directors was anxious to have the convention act on its recommendation to make vice-presidents of Mrs. E. L. Buchwalter, vice-president of the Ohio federation, and Miss Sarah E. Doyle of Rhode Island. Both representatives have been prominently identified with federation work for a number of years. The recommendation was unanimously and enthusiastically endorsed.

REPORTS ARE READ. Mrs. S. C. Crockett read a paper on sanitation and Miss L. E. Stern of Wisconsin, chairman of the library extension, made a report on the library work. Other speakers were Mrs. Florence Collins of Chicago, Mrs. M. Leonard of New York, and Mrs. Lawrence Maxwell.

The American Musical Association extended a greeting to the convention through Mrs. George J. Frank, national president of the organization.

At the close of the morning session the members were guests of the women's clubs from Napa county at Golden Gate Commandery building where samples of the products of Napa valley were complimentary gifts.

The committee from Napa included Mrs. O. E. Barretto Mrs. A. D. Butler, Mrs. P. E. Powers and Mrs. Percy King.

The election of officers for the General Federation of Women's Clubs was a purely feminine affair, held in the auditorium of Golden Gate Commandery hall on Sutter street. Aside from the half-dozen blue-coated policemen stationed in the hall there were no men present.

TWO DAYS LEFT IN WHICH TO REGISTER

Woman's Good Government Club Urges Voters to Get on Book.

Importance of Balloting at Recall Election Impressed on Women.

That is the message that is being sent out by the Woman's Good Government club to all of the women of Oakland, for there are but two days more left in which names can be placed upon the Great Register of the county for the recall election on August 5. On Saturday night registration for this election closes and those who have not placed their names on the registration records of the county of Alameda by that time cannot vote on Monday, August 5, when so great a question as the recall of the present administration is submitted to a vote of the electors of the city.

The members of the Woman's Good Government club say there are a large number of women who have not registered, and they are anxious to get all of these new citizens properly enrolled.

The club has placed Nellie Nelson in charge of registration and precinct work, and she will register anyone who will apply to her at her residence, 1334 Myrtle street. She can be communicated with by telephone, Oakland 8047. Voters will be informed of the nearest registration clerk and if necessary a registration clerk will be sent to any place that must be designated.

HEADQUARTERS ESTABLISHED. Registration headquarters have been established at the following places, where a registration deputy will be on hand from now until Saturday night:

E. W. C. A. Fourteenth and Brush streets. Registration deputy on hand from 12 until 3 every afternoon.

W. G. Hawes, 1417 Twenty-third avenue, telephone Merritt 2883.

Annie MacIntyre, 577 Twenty-ninth street, telephone Oakland 8273.

Miriam A. Joseph, 270 East Fourteenth street, telephone Merritt 2937.

H. F. Pack, 4038 Piedmont avenue, telephone Piedmont 140.

These are the special places designated by the Woman's Good Government club and information will be cheerfully furnished. Registrations can also be made at the county clerk's office.

The headquarters of the club, 321-323 First National bank building, telephone Oakland 2743, will supply information and will send registration deputies to any part of the city upon application.

"Our object," said Mrs. Nelson, the head of the registration department, "is to show every woman how to get her name on the Great Register and once it is there we have to have her take the interest in public affairs that is no longer the right, but the duty of every woman. We hope that every woman who is in doubt about her registration will call up any of our special deputies and be advised correctly as to what should be done."

James Carroll Goes to Hospital to Have Glass Picked Out of Face.

The explosion of a firecracker on the bar of a Webster street saloon, shattered several glasses and threw fragments of glass in the face of James Carroll, of 400 Webster street, cutting his face severely in several places. Carroll was taken to the Receiving hospital where bits of glass were extracted by Steward Platt.

It was feared by his friends that he might lose his eye sight but at the hospital it was found that his eyes had not been injured.

The firecracker had been placed on the bar and had been placed there for the purpose of celebrating the Fourth of July. The explosion occurred when the tip of the lighter touched the fuse. Carroll had not noticed this and when the firecracker exploded, throwing glass in all directions, he was facing the bar.

APPEALS FROM CONTEMPT RULING

H. W. Pohlman, Agent of Iron Workers, Under Bond of $500.

Refuses to Testify Before Federal Court or to Produce Books.

LOS ANGELES, July 4.—H. W. Pohlman, business agent of the Seafarers union of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, who is reported to have in his possession national dynamite conspiracy, is under bond of $500 today, pending his appeal from a ruling on a charge of contempt of court.

Pohlman, several months ago, refused to testify before the federal grand jury here, and recently was ordered to do so by United States Judge Olin Wellborn, or to go to jail for contempt of court.

After the court's order Pohlman again was taken before the grand jury and again refused to testify or to produce the books of the Seafarers workers' organization.

He and his attorney decided to appeal from Judge Wellborn's order to the district court of appeals and pending the result of their action a stay of execution on the contempt matter was ordered.

PRINCE ATTEMPTS TO END HIS LIFE

Nobleman Despondent Because of Failure to Win an American Heiress.

PARIS, July 4.—Prince Ludovic Pignatelli d'Arco, a distant cousin of the King of Spain, and well known in the United States, shot himself in his apartment here today, supposedly because he failed to win the hand of Mary Duke, daughter of Benjamin J. Duke of New York, head of the tobacco trust, to whom he was recently reported engaged.

It was said last night at the hospital where the prince was taken that he could not live. The bullet entered near the heart.

Miss Duke, whose father handles the financial affairs of the American Tobacco company and is reputed to be worth at least $50,000,000, made the acquaintance of the Prince through her brother, Angier Duke. Although on his arrival in America the Prince announced that he was no longer engaged to Miss Helen Hilton, a woman who is in doubt about her registration will call up any of our special deputies and be advised correctly as to what should be done."

James Carroll Goes to Hospital to Have Glass Picked Out of Face.

The explosion of a firecracker on the bar of a Webster street saloon, shattered several glasses and threw fragments of glass in the face of James Carroll, of 400 Webster street, cutting his face severely in several places. Carroll was taken to the Receiving hospital where bits of glass were extracted by Steward Platt.

It was feared by his friends that he might lose his eye sight but at the hospital it was found that his eyes had not been injured.

The firecracker had been placed on the bar and had been placed there for the purpose of celebrating the Fourth of July. The explosion occurred when the tip of the lighter touched the fuse. Carroll had not noticed this and when the firecracker exploded, throwing glass in all directions, he was facing the bar.

COMMITTEE TO CONFER WITH WILSON

Democratic National Board and Candidate Will Talk Over Campaign.

William J. Bryan Arrives in Chicago, Worned by Lengthy Convention.

BALTIMORE, July 4.—The Democratic national committee left here today for Sea Girt to call upon Governor Woodrow Wilson. The visit has no political significance, as it has been the custom for years for the national committee to make a call on the party nominee just after the convention.

While the campaign will come in for informal decision it was agreed that no plans would be reached or policies outlined. A subcommittee composed of Chairman Mack, Secretary Woodson and three other members of the committee expects to talk over with Governor Wilson the naming of the new head of the national committee to succeed Mack, who has announced his retirement.

DEAN IS HIS GUEST.

SEA GIRT, N. J., July 4.—Governor Wilson did not get up until 9 o'clock today, for he did not retire until after midnight, after finishing his reading of the Democratic national platform.

Dean and Mrs. Henry B. Fine of Princeton and family spent the night at the Governor's cottage, and were accompanied to the station by the Governor, when they departed today.

The national committee is expected early this afternoon and will be received in the Governor's tent on the lawn.

The Democratic national committee arrived at Sea Girt shortly before 3 o'clock this afternoon and went to Governor Wilson's cottage, where luncheon was awaiting them.

BRYAN IS WEARY. CHICAGO, July 4.—William Jennings Bryan, wearied by the long convention at Baltimore, arrived in Chicago today and immediately retired.

"I positively will not see anyone until this afternoon," was the word left at his hotel.

PLEASURE CRUISER LAUNCHED IN ESTUARY

Powell Brothers to Be Used for Trips in San Francisco Bay Region.

Another pleasure craft was added to the already long list of vessels of that class built at local shipyards when the launch, the trim little pleasure cruiser Powell Brothers, was launched yesterday at the San Francisco shipyard and the newly-constructed vessel dashed into the waters of the estuary. The launching took place with the high tide shortly before 6 o'clock and was witnessed by a number of guests invited to attend the occasion.

The Powell Brothers is luxuriously fitted out both inside and out and is built for speed. She has galley built forward and has sleeping accommodations for nine people. The new craft is 25 feet in length, with a beam of 12 feet and depth of six feet. She will be operated by a 30-horsepower Gorman engine.

In addition to her engine power, the vessel is supplied with a small motor over the stern house, so that in case of engine trouble she can get along without any danger. Immediately after the launching the vessel was shifted to the Gorman engineering yards, where the engine is being installed. The vessel will probably be ready for commission next week.

MANY ON BAY. Although the weather in the early morning hours was rather unsettled today, quite a large following of water enthusiasts gathered at the local wharves and shortly before daylight launches, tugs, yachts and other pleasure craft of various size and description, were loading local pleasure seekers for trips to the various points of interest in the bay.

The schooner Polar, Captain Lindholm, arrived here today from New Orleans. N. S. W. is experiencing one of the roughest passages of her career. The vessel had hardly cleared from the other side when she ran into a heavy southwest gale, which lashed the sea into miniature mountains and tossed the big windjammer about like a cork. The storm continued for four days, which was followed by a calm of several days, after which the vessel ran into a gale from the northwest.

DECKS ARE AWASH. The decks were awash a greater part of the time, but no damage was done to the vessel. The Polar is at the Oakland Dock and Warehouse Company's wharf, discharging a 120-ton coal cargo, which is being taken to the city. The steam schooner Arctic, Captain Lindholm, arrived here yesterday from Port Arthur. While making the run down the coast, the little lumber carrier ran into a heavy northwest gale off Mendocino, during the course of which 75,000 feet of the vessel's lumber cargo was washed overboard. According to Captain Lindholm, the storm was the worst he has ever experienced on this coast.
